Community Profile

Prepared by the ARIZONA DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

Flagstaff's name comes from a pine tree made into a flagpole in 1876 to celebrate the Declaration of Independence Centennial. It's the largest city & regional center of northern Arizona & the seat of Coconino County. One of the highest US cities, Flagstaff sits at the base of the 12,633-ft San Francisco Peaks. It's a year-round mecca for visitors & many Arizonans maintain second homes here. Flagstaff has long been a transportation hub. Located along an old wagon road to California, Flagstaff was founded in conjunction with the arrival of the railroad in 1882. Today the town links I-40 to I-17, Hwy 89 to Page & Utah, & Hw 180 to the Grand Canyon. Historic Route 66 passes through Flagstaff.
